

8. Cavatina

SCENE 5 The peasants surround Dulcamara. Behind Dulcamara his servant sounds a trumpet.

Maestoso

Dul

Oh,hear me and li - sten, oh ru - stic ones; at

Piano

Maestoso

f

f

f

p

6 (speaking)

Dul

ten-tion, do not chat - ter. You know of my re - pu - ta - tion. I'm Pno.

ff

p

f

11

Dul

known to all that mat-ter as that great fa - mous me-di-co, a Pno.

p

f

p

f

15

Dul

doc - tor en - cy - cl - pae - di - cal; my name is Dul - ca - ma - ra. My Pno.

p

f

p

f

p

19

Dul p. Recit.
vir - tue tra - vels far - ther, known for cu - ring all ca - ses, I'm known through-out the

Pno. Recit.
f

23 (thinking) deciso Andante
u ni - vers... and... and... in o - ther pla - ces.

Pno. Andante
ff p

27
I be - ne - fit hu - ma - ni - ty, and res - cue all those

Pno. p

30
ai - ling. I clear the hos - pi - tals in days with skill that's ne - ver fai - ling. And my ex - press in -

Pno.

33 Più allegro
più mosso
ten - tion's all the world in health to keep. Come buy from me, come buy from me. It's go - ing real - ly

Pno. Più allegro
p

36 Dul cheap. Come buy from me, come buy from me. It's go - ing real - ly cheap. Come buy from me, come

Pno. f pp f

39 Dul buy from me. It's go - ing real - ly cheap. This u - ni - ver - sal (with the air of a charlatan)

Pno. f

42 Dul me - di - cine, so marve - lous ly pro - duc - tive, for mice and rats, all sorts of bugs is e - qual - ly de -

Pno. p

45 Dul struc - tive. It's been cer - ti - fi - ca - ted and stamped, au - then - ti - ca - ted. They're do - cu - ments for Pno.

48

Dul
 all to see, a chance at which you'll leap. This me-di-cine spe - ci - fic-ly re - stores all health pro -

Pno.

51

Dul
 li - fic - 'ly. A man of more than eigh - ty, who had to walk se - date-ly, ran to se-duce young

Pno.

54

Dul
 la - dies and with one would al - ways sleep. He still at-tracts young la - dies, and with one will al - ways

Pno.

57

Dul
 sleep. This cure's the best of a - ny; in few weeks and not ma - ny, all those af - flic - ted

Pno.

60

Dul wi - dows will no lon-ger need to weep. Old wo-men to re -

S Oh!

A Oh!

T Oh!

B Oh!

Pno.

63

Dul ju - vi - nate and a - ching bones to soothe, a dose will take the Pno.

67

Dul pain a - way and make your wrin - kles smooth. Young la - dies, if you've quaffed a whole draught your skin is Pno.